

NOTICE :

Bridge International School Engages Internationally Celebrated Educator

We are pleased to announce that the well-known educationist Mrs Rupa Chakravarti has agreed to join Bridge international School in an Advisory Capacity.

Mrs Rupa Chakravarti -- spouse of retired Ambassador Sarvajit Chakravarti, a career diplomat and Secretary to the Government of India -- is a prolific, multi-faceted persona. She graduated with English Honours from Presidency College, Kolkata. Masters degree in Education, followed by accreditations from Cambridge University in both English Language and Literature.

Mrs Chakravarti has been an internationally celebrated teacher, having taught at international schools in New Delhi, Dhaka, Windhoek, The Hague, Moscow, Brussels and Ljubljana. Her expertise included teaching English in Primary, Middle School, IGCSE A-levels and IB English B. She has also served as a Language Consultant in Business English to corporations like Janssen-Cilag.

As a trained ESL teacher, she has served as Coordinator in several international schools globally. Apart from her valuable work in the world of academia, Mrs Rupa Chakravarti is an immensely talented poet, writer, artist, singer and choreographer. She has performed for Indian embassies in Dar-es-Salaam, Dhaka, Windhoek, Moscow, Brussels, Ljubljana and across Italy . A true patron of the arts, she is both devoted and discerning about upholding quality in culture and heritage. Although it has only been a few months since she has returned to Kolkata, Mrs. Chakravarti already is an integral and important part of the city's art and cultural milieu.